

An Excursion Trip to Hanoi was organised by Department of English for BA 1st year & MA Students on 25 October 2024. The students explored the rich landscape of the area. It acted as a source of education and was designed to provide students with practical learning experiences, exposing them to real world applications of their studies. The excursion trip through the breathtaking landscapes that inspired folk literature and culture plurality that have bewitched readers across the globe. From the mysteries of Mahasu Devta Temple Hanoi and the art and architecture of the vicinity. Our literary adventure was accentuated with immersive nature experience allowing us to not just read, but live the history. By recognising the importance of folk literature and tribes, we have gained a deeper understanding of the belief, traditions and experiences of past societies.
