No substance Use

LBS GC Saraswati Nagar is committed to upholding the National Policy on

Narcotic Drugs & Psychotropic Substances (NDPS) which deals with steps to tackle the problem of sale of drugs and tobacco to school and college students. Smoking, drinking alcohol & use of drugs, gutka etc within the premises of institute is strictly prohibited.

The college is committed to promoting a substance-abuse free environment for its student community. The college regularly conducts awareness campaigns to sensitize and inform - faculty, non-teaching staff and students - about the adverse effects of drug addiction, tobacco consumption and alcohol abuse. All stakeholders are urged to lead a healthy life and stay away from these abuses.

College undertakes orientation programmes for fresher's with the help of health and police departments. Beside this NCC/NSS and Rovers & Rangers volunteers are involved in dissemination the message of No substance use and its ill effect through nukkad nataks , rallies, poster competitions and through anti-drug drive with local NGOs.
